We can say that Pula, the city itself is the best museum you can discover, for most the city views are more rewarding than the views in museums.

The highlight of the day will be exclusive truffle dinner in Motovun, a city-monument, an ancient Istrian acropolis city situated on the top of a 277 meter-high hill whose current appearance originates from the Middle Ages, the 12th and 13th century and very famous region for truffle hunting.
